WEEKEND UPDATE

In Brenham, Cool Brisas

Bluebonnets are blooming, which is one reason to hit the 300-acre, four-casita, Brenham-area farm-to-table gourmand getaway Inn at Dos Brisas this month. There's also the new Houston Rodeo package (from $795), which includes horseback-riding lessons, suite tickets at Reliant Stadium and meals from the Inn's restaurant—where chef Jason Robinson serves Akaushi steak with fresh-picked produce from the just-expanded eight-acre farm. Owner Doug Bosch says he's also building eight new casitas with swimming pools, and quadrupling the size of the onsite greenhouse, noting that he's hoping to win “the race from the dirt to the plate.” dosbrisas.com —Jody Schmal
